

Film & Reading Response Blog Assignment

This assignment asks you to fuse the readings (Kelman, Bush) and the films (National Geo, Spike Lee clip), looking for connections between them, or questions that arise when they are considered together.

Your discussion can include some or all of the following:

- Ways in which the film and readings speak to each other, or relate to each other, either in conflict or in tandem
- What was interesting, significant, curious, unusual, or odd and why
- Questions you have about the topics covered and why you think they are important questions
- Reflections on the differences or similarities in the tone/attitude/mood of each text
- Particular lines, quotes, or scenes -- dissect and talk about them

Good responses will:

- Explain, describe, and explore ideas using details from the film and reading
- Tell why you have these reactions/ideas/questions
- Be no more than two paragraphs. (250-500 words total.)
